

CONFIDENTIAL

13 August 1980

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Security Support Division

FROM:

[REDACTED]
Acting Chief, Operations Support Branch

SUBJECT: Weekly Log (U)

On 11 August 1980, the DCI concluded his vacation to the West Coast. All went well. Noteworthy, however, because of the hotel strike, [REDACTED] recommended that the DCI stay at Treasure Island instead of a local hotel. These reservations were passed along to the DCI through his Security Staff. Nevertheless, the DCI elected to use accommodations at the Stanford Court Hotel. On his first evening of occupancy at 1600 hours, a 7th floor hotel window mysteriously exploded throwing glass on the sidewalk below. Later in the evening, the Stanford Court Hotel received a bomb threat. The DCI was away from the hotel during both of these incidents which were not directed against him. The following day, he elected to use the previously recommended VIP quarters at the Treasure Island Naval Facility. (C)
